

Rights and Responsibilities of Students in WVAdultEd Programs

Instructors and staff members in the West Virginia Adult Education (WVAdultEd) program are committed to providing the best possible educational opportunities for adult students in our program. We are also committed to meeting the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act and to protecting student privacy rights. As part of our commitment, we want to ensure that your rights and responsibilities are understood and to avoid any discrimination in services to you.

Student Rights

- Free adult education instruction.
- Evaluation for appropriate placement.
- Trained and qualified staff members eager to assist you in meeting your goals.
- A program of study designed to meet your educational needs.
- Educational materials that are at your level and match your learning style.
- Equal opportunity; no discrimination based on race, religion, nationality, sex, age, or disability.
- A suitable and accessible learning environment.
- Reasonable accommodations, modifications, or auxiliary aids for learning and testing (if you have documented disabilities).
- Confidential records shared only with your written consent.

Student Responsibilities

- Follow the code of conduct and terms of the contract.
- Take an active part in planning, learning, and tracking progress in your program of study.
- Attend class on a regular basis in order to meet goals in a timely manner.
- Tell the instructor when you need to be absent (as agreed upon in your student commitment contract).
- Sign-in and sign-out each time you are in class using the attendance sheet.
- Ask for help if you have a special need.
- Tell about your disability if you want accommodations.
- Provide records about your diagnosed disability in order to access appropriate testing and classroom accommodations.
- Respect the rights of other students; be considerate.
- Report conduct of other students, instructors, or visitors to the program that disturb you.
- Be honest; do not cheat.
- Keep your study area clean; check with the instructor about eating areas.
- Do not take materials out of the classroom without permission – many materials must be shared with other students, so please ask your instructor.
- Monitor cell phone use so as not to disturb others in the class.
- Remember the classroom is an adult learning center and, as such, children should have alternative arrangements while you are attending class.

Code of Conduct

Students will be suspended temporarily or terminated for any of the following offenses:

- Possession or distribution of stolen property, contraband, fireworks, explosives, firearms, or weapons of any kind
- Vandalism: intentionally defacing, breaking, or damaging school property or equipment
- Participation in any bomb threat or false fire alarm
- Damage or destruction of the property of instructors or students in the program
- Physical or verbal assault on others in the program
- Threatening to do bodily harm or inciting others to do bodily harm to another person
- Intimidation of another person by placing him or her in fear for personal safety
- Sexual harassment: obscene or sexually suggestive remarks, gestures, or unwelcome physical or eye contact directed toward another person that results in embarrassment, discomfort, or reluctance to participate in classroom activities
- Display of offensive graphic material (containing violence, sexual content, nudity, etc.)
- Loud boisterous conduct that disrupts the classroom and prevents others from learning
- Use, distribution, or possession of beer, wine, other alcoholic beverages, controlled substances, or substances represented to be controlled substances
- Use of tobacco products or e-cigarettes on school premises

Dress Code

Students dress and grooming should be neat, clean, and appropriate. The school reserves the right to bar from class those students whose personal appearance is disruptive to the educational process and orderly operation of the school or presents a health or safety concern. In complying with the above, the following guidelines are provided:

- Belts must be buckled, sashes tied, and buttons buttoned, except at the neck.
- Shoelaces must be tied, buckled, or worn as the manufacturer intended.
- Clothing, buttons, signs, or adornments, that display obscene pictures or language or are related to the use or consumption of controlled substances, must not be worn.
- Sunglasses must not be worn inside school, unless they are necessary for correction of medical problems (or from light sensitivity).
- Student's hair, including any facial hair, must be neat, clean, and well groomed.
- Tank tops, sheer blouses, or shirts that cause undue attention must be avoided.
- Clothes must fit appropriately.
- Length of skirts and shorts must be appropriate.
- Undergarments are not to be visible.

I have read the Rights and Responsibilities of WVAdultEd Students and agree to abide by these guidelines and the Code of Conduct and Dress Code contained therein.
