

WVAdultEd Forms vs WV HSE Examiner Manual Forms

Homeschool & GED Ready®	Homeschool wishing to enroll for INSTRUCTION	HSE Exam Registration
- Homeschool students who are 17- or 18-years-old are permitted to take the GED Ready® practice exam in an adult education classroom. - Only GED Ready® taken in adult education classrooms are permitted to be used as qualifying scores for the GED® exam. - These students are NOT enrolled in adult education (or added to LACES). - A folder must be kept of these homeschool students with the Student Technology Use Agreement, GED Ready® scores, registration paperwork, and color copy of current ID at a minimum (Section 4 Instructor Handbook). 16-year-old homeschool students wishing to take the GED Ready® must meet requirements listed on the bottom of Appendix 4A (GED Resources for	- Homeschool students who are 17- or 18-years-old who wish to enroll in adult education to receive INSTRUCTION assistance to prepare for the GED® must file a Notice of Termination of Homeschool with their county and have the WVAdultEd Enrollment Verification form completed by the county office (Section 4 Instructor Handbook Appendix). - These students are recorded in LACES and all enrollment paperwork must be completed. - Enrollment forms for WVAdultEd have the WVAdultEd logo and are not submitted to the HSE examiner. 	- Homeschool students who are 17- or 18-years-old and have met the minimum passing score on the GED Ready® are eligible to register to take the GED®. - Homeschool students must fill out Appendix 1, 2, and 4 in the WV HSE Test Administrator Manual found in the GED Resources for Teachers. - Registration paperwork for GED® testing has the WV  Department of Education logo.

Teachers).
------------	--	--

